101	Sexual Pleasure	By questioning out roles in a relationship, or even our own idea of relationship, men could also explore pleasure in a way that would not define their sexuality.		Women/females as economically active bodies entitled to their own pleasure.			Sexual pleasure is natural!
101	Sexual Pleasure	I believe there should be a new perception of roles in heteronormative relationships. But also, there should be normalization of single women/no relationship.					A radical change that could end patriarchy would potentially change the way policies look at female bodies. The sexual desire would be considered a normal factor in all genders.
102	Sexual Pleasure	Open to talk about sexual pleasure individual and collective	A tool to achieve sexual pleasure.		Supportive.		Promote self love and acceptance.
102	Sexual Pleasure				Promote safe sexual pleasure.
103	Sexual Pleasure		Using technology (toys, etc) for orgasms - distance.	Porn industry doesn't have a female perspective. With the use of websites like OnlyFans this is getting more dominant. The pleasure experienced is always by the almighty male gender.	Awareness for female pleasure.		Politics have always treated things related to the female body as a taboo.
103	Sexual Pleasure				Educating and normalizing sexual pleasure by regular clinic visits.
104	Sexual Pleasure	More female-on-female sexual interactions as a way to achieve true pleasure.	An app that logs sexual satisfaction alongside sex-based profiles (to weed out trash partners).	A booming business. >An incentive for women orgasming >>A punishment for men orgasming more/too much.	It could be considered/checked like everything else.	More sex-based facilities that aren't demeaning (strip clubs)	Women not being stigmatized.
104	Sexual Pleasure	Open, but safe, orgy communities (swinger vibes).	A toy/device that reads/transmits actual body responses to arousal.		Therapy for sex abuse victims/those who can't reach climax.		Men not being able to make/vote on women's sexual issues.
105	Sexual Pleasure	Balanced + not typically initiated by women (deep convos).	Inclusive.		It could be normalized to talk more about pleasure in a healthcare setting more than current yes or no questions that the convo is limited to now.	Comfortable.	Accepting + not limiting for any specific group of people.

106	Sexual Pleasure	Less reliant on physical intimacy for emotional intimacy (good/bad?)	Further virtually connected.	Data-fied and commodified.	Regular discussions within healthcare around sexual pleasure for women.	Shame around being connected to your own body (touching yourself).	Crime to make someone not cum (everyone should "know" from porn).
106	Sexual Pleasure		Emphasis on AI and data to improve sex.	Orgasms as a tired subscription.			Continuing shame and politics around not being able to give an orgasm.
107	Sexual Pleasure	Communal (in a healthy way).	Driven by connection vs lack among people.	Access	Access	Creative	Less shame and stigma
107	Sexual Pleasure	Orgasms not as central.	Creative	Pleasure does not equal from payment.	Less stigma around certain types of pleasure and STDs	Less shame
107	Sexual Pleasure	Care ethic and Hayward's right relation	Freeing	Democratization of knowledge.	Birth and positivity	The body as art with nature.
107	Sexual Pleasure		Gender/sex respect vs. boundaries
108	Sexual Pleasure	Normalized pleasure = openness to communicate	More exploratory toys?	Economy would be "banging" lol	Comfortable relaying info to a doctor.	Learn about sex communication and pleasure in schools in a not weird gross way?	Stricter rules about child and human trafficking.
108	Sexual Pleasure	Room to explore	Dating apps?	Porn = $$$	Maybe there could be a Plan B for STI/STDs	Prudeness becomes a kink?	Religious groups understand that sex is more than just baby making.
108	Sexual Pleasure	Room to communicate		Sex toys = $$$
108	Sexual Pleasure	More enjoyable
108	Sexual Pleasure	More exploratory
109	Sexual Pleasure	Equitable	Responsible	Sex work is more nuanced than just the freedom to participate.	Regular conversations with your OG/GYN or GP	Collaborative	Not capable of policing
109	Sexual Pleasure	Comfortable	Inclusive	Not a part of this		Safe	Powerless
109	Sexual Pleasure	Open	Accessible			Exploration	Removed
109	Sexual Pleasure		Respect
110	Sexual Pleasure	Destigmatizing with partners with friends with sex therapists	New toys	Decriminalizing sex work = $ - Taking care of sex workers (ie help with addictions)	Better sex education (dos and don'ts to keep a healthy body/mind).	More open, honest, and accepting.	Leaving laws out of LGBTQ+ bodies/spaces.
110	Sexual Pleasure		New porn
111	Sexual Pleasure	Open, honest conversational communication about desires, needs, concerns, etc.	Accurate information about sex and sexual pleasure.	No profit from unethical porn.	Shame-free care, free STI testing, culturally competent.	No taboo around sex, accessible.	Mandated comprehensive and culturally competent sex ed.

111	Sexual Pleasure		Culturally competent various, accessible, destigmatized, sex toys and safe online communities for conversation.	Liberation of sex work that ensures the safety of workers and doesn't exploit.		Contraception (kiosks, clinics)	Protections for sex workers and regulations to ensure no exploitation.
111	Sexual Pleasure					Positive messaging regarding sex
112	Sexual Pleasure	Equity (no pleasure gap).	Equity (NO more pleasure gap) Tools and toys that fulfill one's sexual needs/desires	Sex work seen as work (and treated like work)		Pleasure > practicality or utility.	Regulation of sex work to the benefit of sex workers, NOT their clients (solely)
112	Sexual Pleasure	Less transactional					Destigmatized
112	Sexual Pleasure	Disappearance of phallocentrism
113	Sexual Pleasure	More emphasis on equal pleasure in sex and intimacy. Culture where men receive way more sexual satisfaction than women.		Better, everybody is happier because everyone is sexually satisfied.	Seeing how sexual pleasure affects things like hormones, mental health and even pain. More research done and it is something hopefully less taboo.	World where it is not taboo to talk about sexual pleasure, especially those who present as fem/women/AFAB.	Legalization of prostitution
113	Sexual Pleasure				Medications that don't decrease sexual drive.
114	Sexual Pleasure	Relationships are not necessary to achieve satisfying and fulfilling sexual pleasure.	More open development in sex toys.	Sex trafficking would not be profitable.	Discussing sexual health would also include pleasure.	More plastic in the ocean?	Abortion would not be the hot issue it is today.
115	Sexual Pleasure	Equitably reciprocal	Less painful / harmful birth control	Contraceptives, vibrators, etc. would be easily accessible money-wise	Access to quality reproductive healthcare	Lack to stigma surrounding sex/sexual desires, Particularly for women who don't have this now.	Education: Comprehensive sex ed.
115	Sexual Pleasure			Elimination of capitalism		Consent is always an expected part of sexual experiences.	No limits to contraceptive access.
115	Sexual Pleasure						Protection of queer / trans rights.
115	Sexual Pleasure						Elimination of need to go into sex work.

Participant Code	Group Topic	Relationships	Technology	Economy	Healthcare	Environment	Politics
116	Sexual Pleasure	Sex is not one-sided or seen as an obligation for the woman / femme presenting person.	Sex toys more advanced and less stigmatized, men don't have a say in how or why women use them.		Reproductive healthcare procedures are less painful.		I think women's sexual pleasure being more stigmatized than men's is a lot of how their personhood is able to be minimized in politics. If that stigma was removed, easier to put all genders on equal legal standpoint.
117	Menstrual Cycles	Open discussion of menstruation.	Make periods optional!!!!	Fewer disposable products.	Genderless care	Sustainable period care?	Menstrual leave policy.
117	Menstrual Cycles	Caring for each other when period symptoms hit.		Menstrual leave policy.	Trans inclusion
118	Menstrual Cycles	No fear of discussing it regardless of partner (s)'s gender.	Period trackers with proper privacy policies.	Cheaper products and no	Information readily available and proper care available and easily accessed.	Biodegradable / environmentally friendly period products.	Politicians listen to actual healthcare professionals and they take the lead.
118	Menstrual Cycles	No stigma.
